April 1—30, 2017 The Flower Fields at Carlsbad Ranch®

This is one of the most unique attractions in Southern California and an annual rite of passage into spring; drawing more than 100,000 visitors annually. The flower fields consist of a 50-acre dazzling rainbow of beautiful ranunculus flowers set on a hillside that overlooks the striking Carlsbad, California coastline.

A leisurely stroll along the pathways of The Flower Fields provides you with the opportunity to experience colorful bands of ranunculus flowers up close, and to enjoy the breathtaking view of the Pacific Ocean. You will definitely want to bring a camera! www.flowerfields.com

April 1-2, 2017 44th San Diego Crew Classic

Regarded as the first major regatta of the year, the San Diego Crew Classic brings together thousands of athletes from more than 100 universities, clubs and high school programs from across the United States to participate in this premier rowing event in San Diego. Established in 1973, for many rowers, the Crew Classic is the highlight of their competitive rowing careers and a competition for future Olympians, as well as for those new to the sport. Ranging in age from 14 to 84, rowers compete each year in over 100 races in various divisions. The master level (over age 21) is the fastest growing segment of the sport. Many master rowers are novice rowers, while others are reliving their college and club experiences. www.crewclassic.org

April 7-9, 2017 La Jolla Concours d'Elegance

It is fitting that when translated into Spanish, La Jolla means "the jewel", because La Jolla truly is the diamond of the West Coast. La Jolla has become the embodiment of luxury, class and style in San Diego. The chic allure of La Jolla's avenues has drawn the finest automobiles to this coastal town for the La Jolla Concours d'Elegance.

The La Jolla Concours d'Elegance features various types of fine automobile gems. Past years have showcased horseless carriages, Italian marques, British marques, woodies, 50s classics, American sports cars (with a salute to GM on their 100th anniversary), and the automobiles of Carroll Shelby. Spectators from all over the nation come to the breathtaking shores of La Jolla to view their favorite classics. This year, the La Jolla Concours d'Elegance is back with Italian automobiles to illustrate again that if diamonds are forever, then cars are timeless. www.lajollaconcours.com/

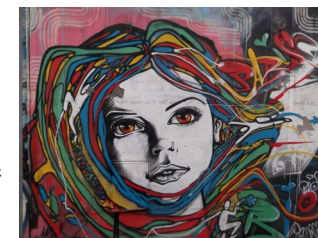

April 7, 2017 San Diego Padres Home Opener

The San Diego Padres start the 2017 season on the road in early April against the Los Angeles Dodgers and, on Friday, April 7, will take on the San Francisco Giants in the home opener at Petco Park. The three-game series continues through April 9. To see the full schedule and ticket prices go to www.padres.mlb.com

April 15-16, 2017 Red Bull Air Race

The Red Bull Air Race World Championship makes a welcome return to San Diego. Set on the Pacific coast of California the location provides the perfect backdrop for a race. San Diego last hosted a Red Bull Air Race in 2009. They proved to be extremely popular with the fans that have often asked when the Air Race would return; well, 2017 is the answer. Nicolas Ivanoff won in the skies above the Pacific coast back in 2009 and he'll be looking to do it again in 2017 when the Red Bull Air Race returns. www.redbullairrace.com

April 27-30, 2017 Art Alive 2017

Spring in San Diego means Art Alive at The San Diego Museum of Art. A loved and eagerly anticipated tradition, Art Alive 2017 celebrates its 36th year and the stunning works of art on display in the Museum with more than 100 floral interpretations created by top local and national designers. This year marks the return of three-time Rotunda Designer Carlos Franco of Green Fresh Florals who will use his spectacular inventiveness to transform the John M. and Sally B. Thornton Rotunda into a botanical masterpiece. www.sdmart.org/art-alive-2017
